In a governmental engagement related parties include members of the governing body (city council, commissioners court, etc.); board members (board of education, zoning board, etc.); administrative officials (mayor, city manager, school superintendent, director of public works, etc.); immediate families of administrative officials, board members, and members of the governing body; and affiliated governmental units that are not included in the financial statements as part of the reporting entity such as metropolitan water and sewer systems, etc. Examples of related party transactions in a governmental engagement include buying janitorial supplies from a city council member's company, leasing a government-owned retail complex to the mayor, and selling city park land to a council member.

Please answer all questions, if the answer to any question is "yes," please explain in the space provided.

Related Parties Questionnaire

1. Have you or any related party of yours had any material interest, direct or indirect, in any of the following transactions since July 1, 2014 to which the County was, or is to be, a party?

- Sale, purchase, exchange, or leasing of property? Yes No
- Receiving or furnishing of goods, services, or facilities? Yes No
- Transfer or receipt of income or assets? Yes No

1. Have you or any related party of yours been indebted to the County at any time since July 1, 2014? Please exclude amount due for ordinary travel expense advances.

Yes No

2. Have you or any related party of yours had any material interest, direct or indirect, in any transactions since July 1, 2014, or in any pending or incomplete transactions, to which any pension, retirement, savings, or similar plan provided by the County was, or is to be, a party? Do not include payments to a plan or payments by the plan made pursuant to the terms of the plan.

Yes No

3. To your knowledge is there any potential matters stated in questions 1-3 that may occur from now through December 1, 2015?

Yes No

The answers to the foregoing questions are correctly stated to the best of my knowledge and belief.
