Military and Overseas Voters Absentee Information

The Primary Election will be held on Tuesday, June 7, 2016.
Information pertaining to the Primary Election will be available in early 2016.

How to request an Absentee Ballot

The Federal Post Card Application (FPCA) is used so qualified service members and overseas citizens can register to vote and request an absentee ballot simultaneously. The FPCA registers individuals to vote and requests absentee ballots for all elections held through the next regularly scheduled general election.
