

COURT SERVICES FUND – BC55

PURPOSE:

The Sheriff is required by New Mexico State statute to serve all judicial processes in the manner prescribed by law. The enforcement of civil writs can include up to 72 different types of orders. Examples of these orders are child custody orders, domestic violence restraining orders, garnishments, mental health evaluations pickups, and evictions. The Bernalillo County Sheriff's Department has special unit that works these civil cases. Last year the unit processed over 11,000 civil cases. This unit works the largest amount of civil cases in the state.
