Things to know when an evacuation occurs

- In-state communication systems may get overloaded
- Try in-state calls, out-of-state calls and texting to contact family and friends
- Each family member should have a phone list with them and follow the family evacuation plan
- Electricity and pumps to water might be down
- Roads to the East Mountains will most likely be closed

ON THE ROAD DURING AN EVACUATION

- Stay calm, drive slowly and carefully, and obey speed limits
- Close vehicle vents and windows
- Follow sheriff’s instructions to Red Cross shelter
- Check in with the Red Cross, then you may go where you want
- At shelter, instructions will be given regarding pets

- Put Go Bags and computer hard drive in car
- Contact family and follow preparation plan
- Locate pets (smoke may make them hide) and place them in a safe area
- Prepare farm animals for transport – hook up trailer
- Close all doors, windows, fireplace flue, swamp cooler, and air conditioner
- Cover sliding doors and windows with reflective, fire resistant covering; move furniture away from windows
- Have hoses and sprinklers ready, fill buckets, place ladder outside and visible to firefighters.
- Wet down house, roof, and yard if there is a good supply of water

EVACUATION CALLED

TURN ON TV & RADIO

- Official evacuation can only be called by sheriff’s department
- Load animals in vehicle, inside their crates
- Follow sheriff’s instructions until you get to the Red Cross shelter
- Do NOT ask deputies questions while on evacuation route. Questions will be answered at the shelter
- Expect heavy smoke
- If evacuation is called, tie a white sheet onto property line gate/fence to notify the sheriff’s department that you have left the area. (Do NOT do this if the evacuation has not been legally called)

PREPARE AN EMERGENCY FIRE BOX

Store by the main door in your home, in this box, keep:

- Staple gun, hammer, and nails
- Heat reflective window covering to put in your windows from the inside before you evacuate your home
- White sheet to tie onto your property line gate/fence when an evacuation is called to signal that you have left your home
