Military and First Responders Day on May 19

Federal, state and local public safety and law enforcement agencies, along with military service branches, will have crews and equipment on display at the 2018 Military and First Responders Day on May 19 at the Cottonwood Mall, 10000 Coors Bypass NW, from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. Families are encouraged to bring the kids. The annual event is free and will also have bounce houses, food trucks and vendors. The event is presented by the New Mexico Department of Veterans Services.

May is Mental Health Awareness Month

Approximately one in five adults, or 43.8 million people, live with a mental health condition. Join us on Tuesday, May 22 from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m., in downtown Albuquerque on Civic Plaza, to learn more about it and what resources are available to help. There will be food trucks, information tables, testimonials, and music. Call 311 for more info.

Parents who host, lose the most.
Don't be a party to teenage drinking.
Visit www.BernCo.gov/DoNotHost for more info.
