

art

along the rio grande

Artistic representations of Valle de Oro National Wildlife Refuge exploring the intersection of art and ecology. Exhibit will include photographs from the refuge's 7th annual photo contest, images of field murals interpreting future habitats at Valle de Oro NWR painted by five artists from the Albuquerque Metro area as well as additional artistic depictions of the refuge's landscape. The exhibit and programming will be held at the Gutiérrez-Hubbell House.

Gallery Opening Reception

Friday, March 6, 5-7p.m.

Family Program

Saturday, March 7, 10a.m.-Noon

Lecture

Sunday, March 22, 1-2:30p.m.

by Cassandra Reid, Executive Director of ALMA

Art Along the Rio Grande Art Fair

Saturday, April 25, 10a.m.-3p.m.

More info: www.friendsofvalledeoro.org

admission and programs are free and open to the public

Cover: Photo taken by, Matthew Zmuda

visit the exhibit

Friday, March 6

through

Saturday, May 9

Hubbell House Alliance

Gutiérrez-Hubbell House History & Cultural Center

6029 Isleta Blvd SW, Albuquerque, NM 87105

<http://gutierrezhubbellhouse.org>

Call (505) 244-0507 for information or to request accommodations

Museum and grounds are ADA compliant